Small Change for Big Changes

The British Stammering Association Supporters Club

Like all charities, the British Stammering Association is dependent on financial support to enable us to carry out our work. Our Information and Support Service changes lives by showing options and a future where before there might appear to be none. A small amount given regularly, will make a real difference to those people who contact us for help, are able to talk to someone who understands and receive a free and comprehensive information pack. Please consider whether you can support us.
