

What to do when your child stammers

Parents, you're not alone. We're here to help.

The British Stammering Association (BSA) is the UK's national charity for children and adults who stammer.

Parents, you're not alone.
We're here to help.

Learn how to support your child at home and in school.

BECOME AN EXPERT PARENT

Go to: www.stammeringineducation.net/expertparent for up-to-date information about stammering and the education system from pre-school to 16+ in England. This resource will show you how to be more confident in seeking support for your child who stammers from teachers, speech and language therapists, and other professionals.

STAMMERING NEED NOT HOLD YOU BACK

Learn the key facts:

- How to get the Early Intervention for your pre-school child that provides the best chance of recovery from stammering.
- How to talk to education staff about stammering and provide information from the resource to pass on to them.
- How to ensure that your child receives the full curriculum entitlement.

- How to make sense of school assessment and testing methods so that your child's ability is never underestimated.

Parents who have an understanding of stammering and its effects are more confident about their ability to support their child through the education process.

The British
Stammering
Association

www.stammeringineducation.net/expertparent

The British Stammering Association is a company limited by guarantee registered in England No. 4297778. Registered Office: 15 Old Ford Road, London E2 9PJ. Registered Charity Nos: 1089967 / SC038866; first registered 1978.

Concerned about a pupil who stammers?

We're here to help.

The British Stammering Association (BSA) is the UK's national charity for children and adults who stammer.

- Learn how to give support in school with simple strategies to improve the communication environment which will benefit all pupils.
- Use our online education resources for all staff in primary or secondary schools
- Access them individually or in a group training session.

Visit our website for up-to-date information about stammering and www.stammeringineducation.net/

the education system from primary to 16+ in England and Scotland.

- This resource will show you how to support your pupil who stammers by providing detailed printable text on classroom management and curricular issues.
- The text is illustrated by video clips of good practice in classrooms with pupils who stammer and their teachers.
- Speech and language therapists contribute advice and good practice guidelines.

EDUCATION STAFF: Learn the key facts so that pupils who stammer can achieve their full potential.

Make your school stammer-friendly!

The British
Stammering
Association

The British Stammering Association is a company limited by guarantee registered in England No. 4297778. Registered Office: 15 Old Ford Road, London E2 9PJ. Registered Charity Nos: 1089967/SC038866; first registered 1978.